INTRODUCTION

A presentation is a formal talk, often delivered in front of an audience, aimed at conveying information, persuading others, or sharing insights on a particular topic. Presentations can take various forms, such as verbal speeches, slideshows, demonstrations, or multimedia displays. They are commonly used in academic, professional, and social settings to communicate ideas, proposals, reports, or findings.

HISTORY

Sachin Tendulkar's record 100 centuries were forged through relentless struggle. Burdened with expectations at 16, he battled fiery bowlers, injuries (like his career-threatening tennis elbow), and crushing pressure. After his 99th ton (2011), he endured a year-long drought, facing criticism before finally scoring his 100th century (2012). Through failures, comebacks, and immense public scrutiny, his mental strength and adaptability kept him going. His journey wasn't just about talent—it was about resilience, sacrifice, and an unbreakable will to rise after every fall. The 100-century milestone stands as proof that greatness is earned, not given.
